IFAF 2022 SUBMISSION RULES AND GUIDELINES

ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

The International Institute for Indigenous Resource Management seeks submissions for the 19th Annual Indigenous Film & Arts Festival, a virtual event with programs scheduled October through December, 2022. The Festival showcases films by and about indigenous peoples from around the world. Our theme for 2022 is Our Stories.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE & ENTRY FEE

All submissions must be received by ~~August 15, 2022~~ extended to September 25, 2022. Entry fee for feature length films (30 minutes or longer) is $20; and for short films (under 30 minutes) it is $10. Entry fees are waived for full time students. An additional $5 processing fee is required for payments made in non-U.S. currency or from non-U.S. banks.

INDIGENOUS ARTISTS PREFERENCE

IFAF prefers to exhibit works by indigenous artists.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

Multiple entries will be accepted, but each entry must be submitted with its own Entry Form, Entry Fee, Agreement, and link to a downloadable electronic file. Entries missing any of the elements below may not be considered for selection.

CHECKLIST FOR SUBMISSION

CALL FOR ENTRIES AGREEMENT FORM

A signed and completed Agreement Form must accompany each title submitted for the 19th Annual Indigenous Film & Arts Festival.

I understand that if the film identified below is selected for the 19th Annual Indigenous Film & Arts Festival, I must provide the following rights and warranties to the International Institute for Indigenous Resource Management ("Institute"):

1. I agree that the Institute may screen my film online at the virtual Festival and may reproduce stills and or video clips from the film for the Institute website, Festival program and for promotional purposes.
2. I agree that, if the film is selected, I hereby allow the Festival entry copies of my work to remain with the International Institute for Indigenous Resource Management for on-going research and preview purposes by researchers and by staff. This paragraph does not authorize additional public screenings.
3. I agree that these rights are granted to the International Institute for Indigenous Resource Management on a non-exclusive, royalty-free, perpetual basis.
4. I warrant that the use of the film for these purposes will not infringe nor violate the rights of any person or entity, that I have the sole authority to grant these rights, and that I have obtained all permissions necessary for me to grant the above rights, including permissions related to copyright, trademark, rights of publicity and privacy, and union contracts, and have paid any and all necessary fees for such permissions.
5. I agree to indemnify and hold harmless the International Institute for Indigenous Resource Management and the Indigenous Film & Arts Festival and their officers, directors and employees from any third party claims that may arise from the use of this film consistent with the rights that I am granting.
6. I agree that I will not use the name of the Institute or the 19th Annual Indigenous Film & Arts Festival for any advertising or promotional purposes related to the film without the prior express written permission of the Institute and notification that the film has been officially selected for the Festival.
7. I agree to adhere to all requirements and request for materials as listed in the Submission Rules and Guidelines.
